Founded in 1946, Resco has served its markets with specialized products ever since, initially, with the refining and Petrochemical Industry. Innovations have been key to Resco's long success, including a full line of: extreme service, low cement, self-leveling, pumpables, plastics, insulating, abrasion resistant and chem.-bonded products. These include RESCOBOND AA-22S, the world's benchmark for abrasion resistance. Resco also produces a complete line of brick, from insulating firebrick to chrome bearing high alumina products.

Recent acquisitions have diversified Resco into many new refractory markets. The addition of National's, REFCO's, and New Castle's product lines allows Resco to offer a comprehensive range of products.
